

1. Purpose

- 1.1 The purpose of this policy is to ensure complaints and appeals are managed impartially and equitably to resolve any difference between Aviation Australia (AA) and any of its customers and to define how students can have an academic or administrative decision re-evaluated by AA.

2. Scope

- 2.1 This policy applies to anybody accessing a service through AA.

3. Regulatory References

- 3.1 National Code of Practice 2018 – Standard 8 ‘Complaints and Appeals’.
3.2 Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015.

4. Related Documentation

- 4.1 AA QA PRO 06 Customer Improvements or Complaints.
4.2 AA EX 07 Examination Appeals.
4.3 AA EX 02a Examination Conditions.

5. Glossary of Terms

- 5.1 Complaint – An expression of dissatisfaction with the quality or delivery of service, a policy or procedure, or the conduct of another person.
5.2 Appeal – A request to have an assessment, administrative or examination decision reviewed for a fairer outcome for all parties involved.

6. Responsibilities

- 6.1 The Quality Assurance Manager is responsible for the proper execution of this Policy.
6.2 The Chief Examiner is responsible for the management of Part 66 regulatory examination appeals.
6.3 The various training department managers are responsible for the management of complaints and appeals other than those relating to Part 66 regulatory examinations.
6.4 All complaints must be processed by the Chief Examiner or Business Manager and recorded via the Helpdesk for statistical analysis and annual review.

7. Policy

- 7.1 AA is committed to providing effective, equitable and timely complaints and appeals process accessible and open to all AA customers and staff.
7.2 AA will afford natural justice and procedural fairness to all parties and aim to:
7.2.1 Facilitate open and honest communication and maintain a culture that views complaints and appeals as an opportunity to improve the organisation;
7.2.2 Ensure that there is a consistent approach to the management of complaints and appeals.
7.2.3 A student is entitled to lodge a complaint or appeal at no cost and may be accompanied and assisted by a support person at any time during the process.
7.2.4 AA will maintain the student’s enrolment throughout the complaints and appeals process, however AA reserves the right to withhold learning opportunities from the student should it be deemed the most appropriate temporary solution.

7.3 Guidelines for Acceptable Grounds for Making an Appeal:

7.3.1 The following guidelines indicate acceptable grounds for appeal:

- Inequitable assessment when compared with other students.
- Situations where non-academic factors have affected assessment.
- Faulty administration or faulty conduct of the assessment.
- Inadequate allowance for special consideration in assessment (note that appeals may be made in relation to special consideration only if appellant has previously, formally and correctly applied for special consideration).

7.3.2 Where an individual feels that they:

- can demonstrate, by written application that Aviation Australia failed to ensure that exam conditions as prescribed in AA EX 02a Examination Conditions were not complied with.
- can demonstrate, by written application they have been unfairly treated in the process of assessment.
- can demonstrate, by written application they have been unfairly treated by persons involved in the conduct of an examination or assessment.
- can demonstrate (with supporting evidence), by written application, IAW AA EX 07 that a Part 66 examination mark should be reconsidered.
- can demonstrate, by written application, that an assessment should be reconsidered.
- can demonstrate, by written application that they have grounds for appealing a decision made by AA in regards to non-academic matters. For example: A student is being reported to immigration for breaching visa conditions.

7.4 Unacceptable Grounds for Appeal:

7.4.1 Where an individual feels that:

- they don't like the mark.
- they are close to a pass mark.
- they put a lot of effort into studying.
- this is a failing mark and they don't like to fail.
- they worked with another student and they got a higher mark.
- their mark makes them uncompetitive.
- they don't like the way a question/questions are written.
- they don't like the person that performed their assessment.
- they don't like the person that supervised their examination.

7.5 Appeals for Part 66 examinations will be dismissed where a score equal to or greater than 75% has been achieved by an individual.

7.6 Appeals will only be accepted if they have been submitted by an individual for the individual. Group or class appeals will be rejected.

7.7 Appeal Timeframes

7.7.1 Examination appeal

- Paper based Aviation Regulatory examination appeals must be submitted within 7 working days of official notification results.
- Electronic examination with built in appeals process will be processed on receipt of official written examination appeal form.
- Please refer to AA QA 06 Customer Improvements or Complaints for non-examination appeals and complaints flowchart.
- Please refer to AA EX 07 Examination Appeals for flowchart.

7.7.2 Non-Academic matters

- An individual has 20 working days to appeal following receipt of written notice of a decision.
- AA must commence action within 10 working days and endeavour to provide a resolution within 30 days.
